

Local to Global: Community Based Solutions for Ending Violence Against Women and Girls

Monday, March 4th
2:30pm - 4:00pm

V-Hall, Armenian Convention Center
630 2nd Avenue, New York, NY, 10016

Five young college students will give presentations as part of their WomenNC Fellowship. Topics discussed will include: violence against immigrants and refugee women, human trafficking policy, rape culture in society and media, men's role in prevention of violence against women, and domestic violence. Join us to learn more about the status of women and girls in the southeastern US!

Sponsored by WomenNC - NC Committee for CSW/CEDAW, Department of Status of Women in San Francisco (DSWS), Women Human Rights International Association (WHRIA), Women International Cultural Network (WIN), and US Women Connect (USWC)
