MODERN DAY SLAVERY

Did you know?

- Youth in schools and neighborhoods across the United States are being cast into the horrifying underworld of sex trafficking at alarming rates. The tragic truth – this slavery can be prevented, but only if youth are able to recognize the signs of danger.
- Thirteen years old is the average age a child is first exploited through prostitution.
- At least 100,000 U.S. children are exploited in prostitution every year in America.
- Over 1.68 million American children run away each year.
- Traffickers recruit children at locations that commonly attract youth: schools, malls, parks, shelters and group homes.

Chosen, a sex trafficking prevention video for youth tells the shocking true story of two 'All-American' teenage girls tricked into trafficking. Eighteen-year-old Brianna was an honor-roll student, cheerleader and worked at a local café. Thirteen-year-old Lacy was an active member of her youth group, and a volunteer in her community. Both were manipulated. Both were exploited. Both were chosen....

This informative video presentation and discussion is hosted by the Wake Young Women's Leadership Academy, and presented by Partners Against Human Trafficking in NC, in collaboration with Soroptimist International of Raleigh, NC.
