

WomenNC 2015 Fellowship Program

Accepting Applications for the United Nations 59th Conference
“Commission on the Status of Women (CSW)”

Apply Now

Why Apply?

- Investigate and engage in local issues and programs concerning women and girls.
- Partner with solution-based organizations.
- Gain leadership and public speaking skills.
- Present your research and best practices at the 59th U.N. CSW Conference in New York City, N.Y., in March 2015.
- Be exposed to global issues and interact with people from 180+ countries at CSW.
- Share U.N. experience and new concepts with local community and organizations.

Who Can Apply?

Any North Carolina undergraduate or graduate students within Alamance, Chatham, Durham, Orange, Guilford or Wake counties.

How to Apply:

Application and all documents available at our website - www.WomenNC.org

Application Deadline:

September 15, 2014, 11:59pm

Fellows Selected by Mid-October.

For Any Questions Please Contact:

csw@womennc.org or info@womennc.org

About WomenNC: WomenNC is a 501C(3) organization, founded in Raleigh. We are committed to leadership training and empowering young adults in North Carolina by engaging them with the UN Commission on the Status of Women (CSW). One of WomenNC's goals is to increase awareness about the importance of the United Nations' Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women (CEDAW) treaty. CEDAW's primary tenet is the universal equal treatment of women.